As a parent of 2 former Stallion football players who were part of the team, I feel doubly blessed to have had them to be influenced by such an awesome man. The boys can relate to "Coach Simp" and find his experience and expertise to be helpful in their interactions on and off of the field.

Speaking Topics

Defining Your Purpose... Understanding Your Why...

We all serve a purpose for our existence. Finding your "why" in life requires you to be willing to transform your thought process in order to fulfill your destiny. This will impact the youth in a way that it can change the trajectory of one's life in a positive way.

Developing Awareness To Always Be Ready

In life, one must never get complacent, but yet always strive to move forward. If you stay ready, you don't have to get ready. Being "Ready" allows you to be able to MAXIMIZE every opportunity. Will YOU Be Ready?!

Determining How To Obtain Growth

Growth requires you to change. One must be willing to go through the process in order to get to the ultimate level. You can't have successes, without the struggles... You can't have sunshine without the rain... You need both to reach heights unknown.
